

The Data Controller

During or after the consultation of this Internet site, Information relating to identified or identifiable persons may be processed. The data controller is Gruppo Italiano Vini S.p.A. - Villa Belvedere - 37011 Calmasino (VR).

Data Processing Location

The processing operations associated with the web services for this site take place at the above-mentioned head office and are carried out by the personnel in charge of processing, or by those charged with occasional maintenance operations. The personal data of users who make specific requests are used for the sole purpose of providing the service or work requested and are divulged to third parties only when it is necessary for this purpose.

Types of data processed

Navigation data

During their operation, the IT systems and software procedures set up to run this website acquire some personal information the transmission of which is implicit in the use of the internet communication protocols. This is information which is not gathered to be associated with identified interested parties but which, because of its nature, could permit the identification of users through processing and association with data held by third parties. The data are used exclusively for extracting anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and for monitoring its proper operation.

Data provided voluntarily by the user

The optional, explicit and voluntary transmission by e-mail to the addresses indicated on this site entails the consequent acquisition of the sender's address, necessary for replying to the requests, as well as any other personal data included in the message. Specific brief information notes will progressively be reported or displayed on the web pages provided for particular services on request.

Cookies

Cookies are small quantities of data which are memorized in the computer's RAM or hard disk every time a website is visited. Our internet site uses cookies to recognize and keep track of visitors in order to provide them with faster access to the site and change its contents on the basis of preferences. The cookies do not allow the visited site to gain access in any way to any other data in the user's computer.

Optional provision of data

Apart from what is specified for the navigation data, the user is free to provide personal data if requested in special sections of the site. Failure to provide the information, however, may make it impossible to obtain what has been requested.

Processing procedures

The personal data is processed using automated systems for the time strictly required for achieving the end for which it was collected. Specific security measures are taken to prevent the loss of data, illicit or improper use and unauthorised access.

Rights of the interested parties

In accordance with art. 7 of the Privacy Code, the persons to whom the personal data refer have the right at any moment to obtain confirmation of the existence or otherwise of the data themselves, to learn their content and origin, check their accuracy or request that they be integrated, updated or rectified, to ask for them to be deleted or transformed into an anonymous form or to block data processed in breach of the law, as well as to oppose their processing for any reason. The requests in question should be made to the data controller.
